

ANPR Board Member Reports July 2019 Meeting

Stated Goals from Last Month

Bill Wade:

Have appointment with a tax person her in Tucson first week in July to work with her to file our FY19 federal taxes (as far as I can tell, that will also cover filing requirements for the District of Columbia). Have decided to do this locally rather than use the person in CA that has been used the past several years - cheaper and can meet personally. Will file for extension, but filing should be complete by early fall. - ACCOMPLISHED

Chris Reinhardt:

Continue to get more content on the website - ACCOMPLISHED

Get Rendezvous early registration open - ACCOMPLISHED

Follow up on the Supernaugh selection - ACCOMPLISHED

Generate a membership benefits page - ACCOMPLISHED

ANPR Board Member Reports July 2019 Meeting

Accomplishments from Last Month

Jonathan Shafer:

I contacted a professor at Colorado State University and connected them with Ann to write an article for Ranger. I worked on the survey for ANPR Members and reviewed a version Chris worked on.

Bill Wade:

Reconciled bank accounts and financials. Met with Tax Advisor to discuss submission of 2019FY tax forms and make adjustments to QuickBooks Chart of Accounts. Reviewed proposals for RR43 in 2020.

Chris Reinhardt:

Ran a Facebook ad in Oregon/Washington using a $15 account credit that I had attached to my account as of June 28th 3 of the 7 Supernaugh applicants are from Oregon State.

Ranger Rendezvous Registration has been opened and I am working on increasing the number of exhibitors and sponsors.

Produced a jobs FAQ page with content and edits made by Paul, Jeanette, and Elsa.

Closed the Supernaugh applications and sent the 21 submissions we received to Will for selection.

Will Mundhenke:

Answered several emails concerning application processes and general questions about seasonal status. Land Management Workforce Flexibility Act was explained.

Recruited and promoted the Bill Supernaugh Memorial Scholarship to many interested organizations and groups.

Reghan Tank:

Connected with Alaska Geographic's Director of Membership to discuss membership retention and incentives

Created a membership flyer with Elsa

Worked with Chris to create a survey for members who decide not to renew

Complete member and non-member surveys and distribute them

Bill Wade:

Continue to monitor finances. Meet again with Tax Advisor to move tax submission and QB adjustments forward.
Follow up on next steps for RR2020. Sort archival material collected and get it ready to transport to Colorado State University.

Chris Reinhardt:

Produce a publishable program for Rendezvous.

Find 2 additional exhibitors.

Move ANPR's BOD drive from Alison Steiner's personal Gmail to the anprbusinessmanager@gmail.com one.

Will Mundhenke:

Sort through Supernaugh Scholarships, and rate them along with two to three other judges.

Select the Supernaugh Scholarship recipients by September 15th.

Reghan Tank:

Secure prodeals for members through ExpertVoice and OutdoorProlink

Send out ANPR flyer to NPS sites

Work with Jeanette to write up a fundraising letter to donors/sponsors/discount offerers
